3. Required documents include:
 - (1) Copy of a valid "Green Card" which has a remaining validity of at least 30 days on the date of application;
 - (2) Documentary evidence for qualifications with expiry dates and having a remaining validity of at least 30 days relevant to the trade divisions for which an application for registration is made;
 - (3) If the applicant is not a Hong Kong Permanent Resident, he/she is also required to present copy of his/her OneWay Exit Permit or passport/travel document showing a valid employment visa; and
 - (4) A self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage.
4. Applicants must SIGN on the above documents (items (1) to (3)) certifying them as true copies, and post the same together with the application form.
5. Incomplete information submitted for any one trade division may render the CIC unable to process the application for this trade division.
6. "Alignment of Expiry Dates" arrangement is not applicable to the following circumstances:
 - (1) Work in Hong Kong with a working visa;
 - (2) Re-issuance of Registration Card for changing or adding trade division(s);
 - (3) Replacement of Registration Card;
 - (4) Information update on Registration Card; and
 - (5) Validity of "Green Card" is less than 18 months.
7. Upon receipt of all relevant application documents, the CIC will send the "Notification of Registration Card Collection (Renewal by Mail)", using the return envelope provided by the applicant. The date of collection will also be stated in the notification. The Registration Card will normally be issued to the applicant in 14 business days.
8. The validity of a registration normally lasts for 5 years. The application fee for renewal is HK$100. If the applicant possesses a qualification which is specified in Column 6 of Schedule 1 of the Construction Workers Registration Ordinance ("the Ordinance") as "Other qualifications" and is relevant to one of the trade divisions he/she applies to register, he/she is only required to pay HK$50. Such application fee has to be paid by cash or octopus on the date of card collection.
9. Application fee will not be transferable once paid and is not refundable regardless the application is successful or not, or when it is withdrawn midway.
10. The CIC will request the qualification issuing authorities concerned to verify the information provided by the applicants. Should the CIC fail to receive a reply of confirmation of qualification from the authorities concerned after receipt of the application, the CIC will inform the applicants of the possible cancellation of their applications.
11. Information about all the registered trade divisions will be stored as electronic data in the chip embedded inside the Registration Card. However, owing to the limited space available on the back of the card, the registered trade divisions will be printed on it as far as possible corresponding to the sequence of trades filled in the application form.
12. If there is a genuine need, an applicant may authorize another person to collect the Registration Card on his/her behalf by filling in a specified authorization form. The authorized person shall present to the staff of the CIC the authorization form, a photocopy of the applicant's HK Identity Card, originals of valid Green Card and documentary evidence for qualifications, his/her own HK Identity Card, and sign on the related card collection document & "Confirmation of Application Data".
13. According to the Ordinance, if a Registered Construction Worker has changed his/her name or address, he/she must give a written notice to the Registrar within one month stating the related changes.
14. According to the Ordinance, a person who, without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, sells or offer for sale, lends, gives, hands over or parts with possession to another person a registration card commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 3.
15. If Registered Construction Worker carries out works which are regulated simultaneously by other legislation(s), they shall be conducted in accordance with the relevant statutory requirements apart from the Ordinance.
16. The CIC maintains a Register of Registered Construction Worker in the website (<http://www.cic.hk>) for inspection by the public.
