

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Job Matching Fair for Ethnic Minorities

Hong Kong – 22 January 2015 – The construction and related electrical and mechanical industries are evidently facing shortage of workers. While the population of ethnic minorities has been increasing, their members could become a significant work force for the industry and contribute to the development of Hong Kong.

To attract more ethnic minorities to join the construction industry, the Construction Industry Council and New Home Association are jointly organizing a “Job Matching Fair for Ethnic Minorities” this Sunday. More than 100 vacancies in the positions of operation assistant, mechanic, technician as well as on-site interview will be offered to either skilled or non-skilled workers. Job seekers should bring along with the original and copy of their HKID, job CV and certificates for the interview. Participating employers include Green Island Cement Company Limited, ThyssenKrupp Elevator (HK) Limited, UniVision Engineering Limited, U-Tech Engineering Company Limited and Hong Kong Plumbing and Sanitary Ware Trade Association Limited.

Apart from job recruitment counters, training information and games stalls will be also set up in the event. Interested parties who would like to join or learn more about construction industry are welcome to join. “Job Matching Fair for Ethnic Minorities” will be held on 25 January 2015 (Sunday), from 2:30pm to 6:30pm, at Henry G. Leong Yau Ma Tei Community Centre (Address: 60 Public Square Street, Yau Ma Tei, Kowloon). For enquiries, please call 2100 9113 or visit CIC website at www.hkcic.org.

Media Enquiries

Trainees Recruitment and Career Support Department

Tel: (852) 2100 9113

Fax: (852) 2100 9139

Email: lywong@hkcic.org