Young Lo Pan Award Presentation Ceremony 2017

Hong Kong · 6 July 2017 – Today the 13th day of the 6th month of the lunar calendar is Lo Pan Patron's Day. Organised by Hong Kong Kwong Yuet Tong and co-organised by the Construction Industry Council, Vocational Training Council, and the Hong Kong Institute of Construction Managers, the "Young Lo Pan Award Presentation Ceremony" was held today at the Lo Pan Temple, which is located at Ching Lin Terrace, Kennedy Town. The Ceremony aims to recognise young talents with outstanding performance and dedication in the construction industry, as well as to encourage more potential young people to join and ultimately contribute to the booming construction industry. The Ceremony was officiated by Mr. Michael WONG, Secretary for Development, HKSAR.

The Young Lo Pan Award includes three categories: Engineering Management, Skilled Practitioners and Traditional Crafts. The awardees were selected based on their management or skill performance at work, continuing studies, knowledge and integrity on safety work procedures and interview performance, etc. The judging panel was composed of members from both the organiser and co-organisers, and finally ten Young Lo Pan awardees, four traditional craft awardees and other winners were selected. The "Excellent Traditional Craft Award" is added this year to recognise the most outstanding winner among the traditional craft awardees.

This year, a total of four female candidates were awarded with "Young Lo Pan Award", "Occupational Safety and Health Award", the winner of "Traditional Craft – Joinery Award" was also awarded with the "Excellent Traditional Craft Award", showing that female practitioners can also perform with excellence.
