

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

District Council Election to be held on 10 December
Construction Industry Council Again Urges the Industry to Vote

Hong Kong • 8 December 2023 – The 2023 District Council Ordinary Election will be held on 10 December 2023, this coming Sunday. The Construction Industry Council (CIC) once again urges members of the construction industry to vote for the candidate they prefer and trust, together we build a better community.

The CIC has been acting as the bridge between the Government and the construction industry to build a sustainable and livable city in Hong Kong. The CIC also understands that the work of the District Council is closely related to the industry, for example, public facilities in the community and environmental improvement works, which require District Council members to voice out for the residents. Therefore, the CIC once again call upon all registered voters, especially colleagues in the construction industry and their family members to fulfil their civic responsibility to vote on the polling day. By casting their vote for the competent persons, we play our part in contributing to the sustainable development of Hong Kong.

About the Construction Industry Council

The Construction Industry Council (CIC) was formed in 2007 under the Construction Industry Council Ordinance (Cap. 587). The CIC consists of a chairman and 24 members representing various sectors of the industry including employers, professionals, academics, contractors, workers, independent persons and Government officials.

The main functions of the CIC are to forge consensus on long-term strategic issues, convey the industry's needs and aspirations to the Government, provide professional training and registration services, and serve as a communication channel between the Government and the construction industry.
