Applicable for
Trade Test for Marine Construction Plant Operator
Declaration of Applicant

► Declaration of Applicant:

- I fully understand that the sole responsibility of Hong Kong Construction Industry Trade Testing Centre ("HKCITTC") in the trade test in this trade is to assess the performance of the candidates in relation to their craftsmanship and that the candidates should undertake the arrangement of all necessities required for the trade test (e.g. test venue, materials, facilities and quality and handling of the finished craft etc.). Should there be any misarrangement or adverse conditions, candidates must contact the HKCITTC at least 3 working days prior to the test date for test rescheduling. Invigilator of HKCITTC could call off the trade test if he/she finds the test venue, materials, facilities or safety measures dissatisfactory. Test result, in this regard, will be deemed 'absent' and the related test fee will not be refundable. Candidates are required to resubmit a new application. Consequential surcharges may be incurred for future applications for trade tests (Please refer to Annex 2 for details).
