

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Recruitment Day for Ethnic Minorities

Hong Kong • 22 August 2012 – To cope with the booming growth of the infrastructure projects, railway development and various construction works, the construction industry predicts that there will be a strong demand for new entrants for the workforce in the next few years. Besides local professionals, there are also a number of construction workers with different ethnic backgrounds participating in the industry. To attract more ethnic minorities to join the industry, the Construction Industry Council Training Academy, with the support from the Hong Kong Construction Industry Employees General Union will organize “Recruitment Day for Ethnic Minorities” on coming Sunday (26/8).

Over 350 vacancies salaried from 10K to 25K per month as well as on-site interview will be offered to either skilled or non-skilled workers during the event. Participating contractors include Alliance Construction Materials Ltd, Build King Holdings Ltd, Gammon Construction Ltd, Wanson Construction Co. Ltd and Yau Lee Construction Co. Ltd.

The Recruitment Day for Ethnic Minorities will be held on 26 August 2012 (Sunday), from 1:00pm to 4:00pm at the Hong Kong Construction Industry Employees General Union (Address: 3/F Hung Yip House, 340 Portland Street, Mongkok, Kowloon). Interested applicants should apply in person and they should bring along the original and copy of their HKID, job CV and trade test certificates for the on-site interview.
